Export Controls

Each Party is responsible for determining whether its performance is subject to, and in compliance with, U.S. export control laws and regulations (“U.S. Export Controls”), including but not limited to the Export Administration Regulations - EAR (Department of Commerce), the International Traffic in Arms Regulations - ITAR (Department of State), the sanctions programs embodied in regulations administered by the Department of the Treasury’s Office of Foreign Assets Control (OFAC), the U.S. anti-boycott laws and regulations (EAA) and U.S. anti-terrorism financing laws and regulations.

Alternative in checklist:

- It is understood that University is subject to United States laws and regulations controlling the export of technical data, computer software, laboratory prototypes and other commodities, and that its obligations hereunder are contingent on compliance with applicable U.S. export laws and regulations (including the Arms Export Control Act, as amended, and the Export Administration Act of 1979). The transfer of any such Technology and Items and the entering into and provision of such Transactions and Services that are subject to Restrictions may require a license or authorization from the cognizant agency of the United States Government, and/or may require written assurances by the receiving party that it shall not re-export such Technology and Items to certain foreign destinations and/or to certain recipients without prior approval of the cognizant government agency, and/or may require that the involved individuals and entities will comply with conditions on Transactions and Services. While University agrees to cooperate in securing any license which the cognizant agency deems necessary in connection with this Agreement, University cannot guarantee that such licenses will be granted.

- Anti-terrorist Compliance: Collaborator hereby agrees that all funds, including sub-awards to subrecipients, will be used in compliance with all applicable United States anti-terrorist financing and asset control laws, regulations, rules and executive orders.
