When joining a zoom conference call using your phone for the audio, call from a landline/ cell and be sure to use your individual participant ID#.

- After joining a Zoom meeting, you will be prompted to join the audio automatically. If this prompt does not appear or you close out of it, click Join Audio in the meeting controls.

- Click Phone Call.
  Note: If you are subscribed to the call out add-on, you can join the meeting by having Zoom dial your phone number.
  - If you join by computer first and then call in with your phone, you can enter the Participant ID to bind your phone and device session together and show your video when you speak on the phone.
  - To enter your participant ID once you are in the meeting, enter #Participant ID# on your phone.
  - If you joined computer audio automatically and want to switch to your phone, you can leave the computer audio and join by phone using the following steps:

1. Click the arrow next to Mute/Unmute.
2. Click Leave Computer Audio.

3. Click Phone Call and follow the prompt to dial in.

Best Practices:

- “Gallery View” is the preferred choice for most Zoom users. However, if you want to have the speaker’s window enlarged, please select “Speaker view” instead. You can also switch between these views depending on your preference for a session.
- Remain on mute unless you are speaking or presenting. All participants will be automatically muted upon entry.
- In the Chat box, you can send a message to an individual or the entire group.
- Please have your video turned on, if possible. We would like the virtual meeting experience to mimic the face-to-face meeting.
